

COMMERCIAL EDIBLE FOOD GENERATOR (CEFG) FOOD RECOVERY POST-EVENT SURVEY

Senate Bill \(SB\) 1383 requires Commercial Edible Food Generators (CEFGs), such as large venues and events, to have a plan in place for any excess edible food that may be available at the end of the event. CEFGs must plan for food recovery logistics and establish written agreements with Food Recovery Organizations (FROs) in advance. CEFGs must also maintain donation records when donating recovered food to FROs. Use this Post-Event Survey as record keeping for your food recovery program. Submit the Post-Event Survey by email no more than two weeks after the event to: EHSFoodRecovery@dph.sbcounty.gov

Notes:

Food Recovery Organization (FRO) – Organizations that collect edible food from CEFGs that would otherwise go to waste and distribute it to feed people in need (i.e. food banks, food pantries, soup kitchens, non-profits).

Food Recovery Services (FRS) – Organizations that transport edible food from CEFGs that would otherwise go to waste and redistribute it to feed people in need.

If donating to a FRO/FRS, written agreements and donation records must be completed between the vendor and FRO/FRS.
